Audio Description is an essential accommodation for people who are blind, have low vision, or who are otherwise visually impaired, and is also used widely in language translation and increasingly in cultural translation with sighted audiences. Come learn more about it!

The series includes:

- Zoom Lecture by Georgina Kleege, professor of English, University of California, Berkeley, and the author of Sight Unseen. Thursday, February 24 at 6pm.
- Movie night - *Spiderman: No Way Home shown with open audio description in English. Thursday, March 3 at 7pm.
- In-person workshop by Nefertiti Matos Olivares, expert on cultural accessibility and audio describer. Thursday, April 7 at 6pm: CS119.
- Movie night "under the stars": *Encanto, shown in Spanish with English subtitles and open audio description in Spanish. Thursday, April 21 at 7.30pm.
